The report of the Secretary was read and The proposed business of the Convention eing a general discussion of the practical methods of securing the religious education of youth, the topics selected were at once taken up in the order as published by the Executive Committee. The following were the subjects chosen :

I. The relation of the State, County Township and City Sunday School Unions to each other.

2. The importance of Unions in conve ient localities and their influence on the Sunday Schools so united, in the promotion of mutual acquaintance, emulation and en the Churches represented.

3. That it is the duty of true patriotism sustain the Subbath School. . That soult Christians should by their was presence and activity in the Sunday by the Council, at the session of May 22nd, School, labor to influence and secure the at tenslance of the youth of their families and

5. The religious conversion and growth in grace of the acholar, should be ever present as a controlling motive in the mind of the Teacher when engaged in his work. 6. That it is the duty of Christians, it the true missionary spirit, to carry religiou netruction to those who are destitute of it and not to weit for them to come for it. Mr. Loren Prentiss opened the discussion with a short and printed address. He was followed by Rev. Mr. Jones who gave an able discussion of the first topic. T. P. Handy, Esq., made a very pungent lenure as those first appointed. speech upon the second topic urging its ractical bearings with great force, The third topic was taken up by Rev. Mr. ones, who urged that it is plainly the duty all Christians, to sustain the Sabbath chool as a direct means of fostering and confirming that true patriotism, which is se valuable and necessary to the maintenance our government Mr. Hicks followed, stating that the grand display of patriotism in our late contest with rebellion, was the legitimate fruit of the religious teaching of the people.

Rev. Mr. Gillett took up the same subject rging upon the Convention the necessity of teaching the children religion to fit them to meet circumstances of trial and danger, like those we have passed through during the past few years. Mr. T. P. Handy responded to the fourth opic with a very able discussion of the duty
